

Military Healthcare

Programs We Support

PROGRAM	WHO IT COVERS	COVERAGE TYPE	WHEN IT APPLIES	HOME NURSING BENEFITS
TRICARE Prime	Active duty service members and their families	Managed healthcare plan similar to an HMO	During active military service	Skilled nursing may be authorized when medically necessary for complex conditions
TRICARE Select	Military retirees, families, and some active duty family members	Preferred provider option (PPO-style)	During or after service depending on eligibility	May cover home healthcare services with authorization
TRICARE Reserve Select	Selected Reserve members and their families	Premium-based health plan	When serving in the Reserve	May support medically necessary home healthcare
TRICARE for Life	Military retirees age 65+ with Medicare	Medicare supplement coverage	After retirement when enrolled in Medicare	May support healthcare coordination for veterans with complex medical needs
Extended Care Health Option (ECHO)	Military dependents with qualifying disabilities	Supplemental benefit through TRICARE	When a family member has complex medical needs	May help support services for medically fragile children
Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP)	Military families with special medical or educational needs	Care coordination program (not insurance)	While a service member is on active duty	Helps families access appropriate care resources and services
VA Healthcare	Eligible military veterans	Comprehensive healthcare system	After military service	Veterans may receive home-based healthcare when clinically appropriate
VA Community Care Network (CCN)	Veterans receiving VA healthcare	Allows care from community providers	When VA facilities cannot provide services directly	When VA facilities cannot provide services directly
CHAMPVA	Spouses and dependents of certain disabled or deceased veterans	Health insurance program administered by the VA	When veterans meet specific eligibility criteria	May cover a variety of healthcare services including some home-based care
VA Aid & Attendance	VA Aid & Attendance	Monthly financial benefit	When veterans have significant care needs	May help offset the cost of in-home care services

Learn more at tshc.com/services/military-programs/